Mr. H. Douglas Bessemer is a well-known Fellow of the Royal Philatelic Society, London, and a keen member of the British West Indies Study Circle. Son of the late Henry W. Bessemer who was famed for his magnificent collection of France, he is a connoisseur of the stamps of the British West Indies group, and at one time formed a fine collection of St. Helena. Superb condition is his keynote and all his collections show the great research he has paid to the study of the stamps in which he has interested himself.

FIRST DAY
THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 14th, 1963

at 2 p.m.

Catalogue references are to Stanley Gibbons' Catalogue unless otherwise stated (shown in brackets at end of descriptions), followed by the number of stamps in each lot (in italics).

★ signifies unused and without gum unless specified o.g. ○ signifies used.

☒ denotes that the stamps are on cover. ✂ signifies air issues. S signifies specimen.

P signifies proof or essay. S.L. signifies lots which on viewing days are available for inspection on request.

As certificates are only granted in respect of bisected stamps when on cover, all bisected stamps used on pieces, offered in this sale, are sold "as is"

ANTIGUA

Pre-Stamp and Stampless Covers

Lot		Valuation
1	☒ A rare and interesting cover, part of the "Codrington" correspondence bearing "Antigua" type PD 8 dated 13.1.91, backstamped receiving mark MR-11-91 in small Fleuron type, cover encloses a letter stating that it was being sent by convoy and giving interesting details of the conditions at that time, in good preservation (Photo) Cover 1	£10
2	☒ Another interesting cover from the "Codrington" correspondence with the Packet Rate "2/11" in manuscript, bearing on reverse small Fleuron type "Antigua DE-16-1830", an interesting item, in good preservation Cover 1	£7
3	☒ An interesting pre-stamp cover of 1857 bearing Crowned circle "Paid at Antigua"; Weston-super-Mare receiving stamp MY-2-1857; backstamped C.D.S. Antigua 18-12-1857 and transit marks, in very good preservation Cover 1	£7
4	☒ A stampless cover with crowned circle "Paid at Antigua" and London Paid 3-AP-67, backstamped Antigua MR-13-67, and receiving mark London AP-3-67 (this late use of the crowned circle was probably due to the non-arrival of the stamps sent to the Colony in May 1866, the next consignment not being sent until July 1867), an interesting item Cover 1	£7
5	☒ Pre-stamp cover backstamped Antigua C.D.S. DE-11-1867 and London arrival mark JA-1-58, on face the manuscript 6 (Packet Rate), good condition Cover 1	£3
6	☒ An interesting stampless cover franked by crowned circle "Paid at Antigua" with C.D.S. "London Paid 30-8-66" in red, backstamped C.D.S. "Post Office Antigua 1866" in blue, late use of crowned circle probably due to shortage of adhesives, an interesting item, in good preservation Cover 1	£7
7	☒ Envelope with crowned circle "Paid at Antigua" and London Paid 29-JY-67, backstamped C.D.S. Antigua JY-12-67 and London JY-29-67 (this late use of crowned circle and no adhesive was probably due to non-arrival of stamps), interesting item, a little creased in places Cover 1	£7
